Security Is an Operations Control Plane.

Security enforces who can access what—across the path from admin to application.

MEMORABLE STATEMENT:

A security control is real only when an intended identity is allowed and an unintended identity is denied.

ProTech
protechtraining.com